

Librarian SR Competencies <sup>1</sup>

Competency	Scope note
Systematic review (SR) foundations	How and why SRs are used in the health sciences and how to effectively find SRs
Process management and communication	Resources and skills involved in SR team communication and effective project management
Research methodology	Ability to comply with and advise teams on SR standards and best practices
Comprehensive searching	Ability to construct and document replicable search strategies in appropriate literature databases and other information resources
Data management	Processes, tools, and skills involved in using data and ensuring data integrity, archiving, and tracking for the SR process
Reporting	Ability to communicate literature search methods and results according to established standards so that they are suitable for publication and are replicable